PRESS RELEASE

A fantastic opportunity to meet Mary King, one of this years inspiring Olympians, as she will be entertaining an audience of 200 people in Upton Junior School Hall on Friday the 23rd November raising money for the Dorset & Somerset Air Ambulance Service.

Mary will be meeting the audience as they arrive, with this years Silver Medal as well as the Silver and Bronze medals from some of her other Olympic performances, on Friday 23rd November 2012 in the School Hall, Upton Junior School, St Martins Road, Upton, Poole, Dorset. BH16 5NQ. There will be a number of Stalls from local Riding and Equestrian establishments as well as representatives from some of Mary's many sponsors. There will be a raffle with many donated prizes as well as refreshments.

"If you have heard Mary talk before, you will know that her ability to keep her feet firmly on the ground is almost almost as fascinating as her skills she displays on her horses. A must see for everyone".

- Simon Thomson (promoter and Mary's brother)

There will be a raffle with prizes donated by the stall holders and light refreshments available. The doors open at 6.30pm and Mary's talk will start at 7pm. Tickets are available for £10 for adults, £7.50 for children (16 and under) with discounts for group bookings and families. Tickets can be booked online at www.eluk.co.uk/maryking
